First Annual Port Washington Calendar Planning Meeting June 16

The Port Washington Calendar is pleased to host the First Annual Calendar Planning Breakfast Meeting. Port Washington is fortunate to have a plethora of quality organizations with many worthwhile events and activities during the year.

Pre-planning and coordinating dates is to everyone's advantage.

This get together will be an opportunity to identify expected dates for the full variety of events planned for the coming year. All local organizations are invited to send a representative to attend this breakfast. Everyone will want to see where their organization's events fit into the overall schedule, where events could be coordinated, and where some might want to alter their dates.

The meeting will be held at Ayhan's Fish Kebab on Tuesday, June 16, at 8:00 -10:00 AM.

Worksheet Calendars Will Be Available

Worksheet calendars will be available identifying those events known in advance. Attendees will be able to add events during the meeting. All organizations are encouraged to fax or email their planned event schedule prior to the breakfast. This way, we can have your events posted on the worksheets in advance of the meeting.

Working Together

Attending representatives are encouraged to work with each other to understand each organization's events and scheduling. Duplicate dates can be noted and adjusted. However, scheduling decisions remain with each individual organization.

Calendar Posted On The Web

The overall calendar covering September 2009 to August 2010, will be published on the Port Washington Calendar website, www.PWCalendar.com, and updated as changes are received throughout the year. It will be down loadable for all.

Please Make Your Reservation

There is no charge for the breakfast but advance reservations would be appreciated. Send your planned schedule and/or breakfast reservations to Mainly Marketing at 516-883-0313, Fax 516-304-5865, or mmei@mainlymarketing.com. (Please label "Planning Meeting")
