Annual Cow Neck Country Fair at Sands-Willets House

Saturday, September 12 • 10 am - 5 pm

The fair grounds at Sands-Willets House will again be a paradise for kids and grown-ups.

The Sampwams Creek Boys will entertain, and the Civil War re-enactors will encamp with fife and drum. There will be a petting zoo for children, pony rides, games, face painting, a fire truck they can climb aboard, popcorn, hot dogs and cotton candy. Adults will enjoy the art, antiques, crafts, jewelry, harvest booth, rug-hookers, stamps, tools, tractors and bargain-basement treasures.

On display will be the Society's delightful postcards and old photos of Port Washington the way it was in the early 1900s (as recently shown at the PW Public Library).

Proceeds of the fair benefit the Historical Society's Restoration Fund.

The Cow Neck Peninsula Historical

Society is a non-profit, voluntary educational institution concerned with the cultural, social and political history of Long Island. In addition to the Sands-Willets House, it operates a living museum in the Thomas Dodge House Port Washington's oldest house (ca. 1721).

The Society is located at 336 Port Washington Boulevard. For more information call 516-365-9074. Rain date: Sunday, September 13.

Summer isn't over until you've enjoyed the food, rides and games at Grande Festa Italiana at North Hempstead Beach Park – the largest and oldest feast on Long Island.

There's something for everyone – the famous food tent offering homemade pasta dishes, heroes and American barbecue food — great rides and games, a gambling casino, live entertainment Thursday-Sunday night and a fireworks display on Sunday at 9:30 pm.

The Festa is open Wednesday-Friday 6-11 pm, and Saturday and Sunday 2-11 pm. Ride all night Wednesday and Thursday for $25 and ride free on Sunday 12:30-1:30 pm.

The Sons of Italy in America's John Michael Marino Lodge sponsors the Festa and donates all proceeds to charity. For more info: www.marinolodge.org. Buon appetito!

ANNUAL PARTY IN THE PARK

Saturday, September 26 – Rain or Shine

For over 15 years, Residents for a More Beautiful Port Washington has been proud to run a great community event, the annual Party in the Park – a FREE family celebration for the Port Washington Community. This year's event will be held on Saturday, September 26, from 1 - 4pm at the Blumenfeld Family Park (next to Landmark, across from the library). If it rains the event will be held in the Landmark Gym.

At 4 pm Landmark will be hosting a FREE performance by Jonathan Kruk in the Jeanne Rimsky Theater to celebrate Landmark's 100th anniversary.

"This year's celebration is bound to be even bigger and better!" said Residents Director of Development Mariann Dalimonte. Festivities will include carnival games, bouncers, obstacle course, mini all-star pro-hoop, cotton candy, ices from Frank's Pizza and more.

If you are interested in volunteering for this terrific event or becoming a sponsor please call the Residents office at 767-9151 or e-mail info@pwresidents.org. Thank you!
