Alice in Wonderland Presented by PW Play Troupe

Port Washington Play Troupe's Children Show will present their multi-generational production of Alice in Wonderland in the Parish Hall at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 9 Carlton Ave., PW on Thurs., Mar. 21, 7pm; Sat., Mar. 23, 3pm and 8pm, and Sun., Mar. 24, 3pm.

The Cheshire Cat with Alice, from Port Washington Play Troupe's Alice in Wonderland

The production's robust cast of 50 includes seven adults and 43 children ranging from 4th - 10th grade. Director Diana vonRoeschlaub, who grew up performing in the Children's Show and Port Summer Show, directs this stage adaptation of Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking Glass by Play Troupe President Pamela Meadows, with Executive Producer Sandra Ehrllich leading the production team. Meadows specifically adapted the story in 1973 to accommodate greater numbers of young performers, but various incarnations of the play have made regular appearances throughout the Children's Show's history.

"Play Troupe's multi-generational approach to community theater for children provides an atmosphere of admiration, respect and encouragement among the cast, while presenting an exciting dynamic for the audience," vonRoeschlaub notes. "When presenting classic fairy and folk tales, it just adds such a wonderful sense of 'the way it's meant to be' when actors of the appropriate age portray characters in the story. To see so many generations having fun together will just warm your heart."

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children, and can be reserved by calling 473-6243.
