Where to Go and What to Do! www.PWcalendar.com

PW Farmers' Market Opens June 11

Every Saturday through October, the Port Washington Organic Farmers' Market is held at the Town Dock from 8 am - noon

The market, now in its fourteenth year, is managed by Grassroots Environmental Education and is the place to go for fresh, locally-grown, organic produce and specialty items. It is the only 100% organic farmers' market in New York. East End farmers bring truckloads of fresh vegetables, local bakers offer fantastic breads, cakes and organic coffee, and organic blueberry muffins, eggs, goat cheese and honey are popular with market regulars.

Grassroots also cultivates and manages a small organic farm at the Dodge Family Farm in Port, growing vegetables for the local food bank and for the Farmers' Market. For info, call Grassroots at 883-0887 or visit their website www.grassrootsinfo.org.

Relay for Life, June 18-19!

The American Cancer Society's Relay For Life celebrates 15 years in Port! Join Port Washington neighbors and friends as we come together again to Celebrate, Remember & Fight Back on this special night.

Over the last fourteen years, the Port community has raised approximately $1,487,000. Last year, over 1,000 people attend and raised over $126,900 – the highest fundraising Relay For Life in Nassau County for 2015! In 2016, 70 teams hope to raise $175,000.

Held on the Schreiber High School track, the Survivor/Caregiver Reception starts at 5:30 pm, Opening Ceremony at 7 pm, and the Luminaria Lighting Ceremony at about 9 pm. There will be music performances, games, raffles, and at 10 pm, a BBQ hosted by the PW Fire Department.

You don't have to pitch a tent and stay overnight! There are many ways to get involved... join a team, purchase a luminaria or a raffle ticket, donate a raffle item, be a volunteer, walk a few laps or a few miles. Just come and become a part of this hope-filled event.

PUBLISHER'S COLUMN

The other day, some friends were lamenting the shrinking, and sometimes the disappearance, of many service organizations. Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary, and others had a common thought that life was good and it was only right to spend some time and resources towards those who had not fared as well. Many members were shopkeepers who took an hour or so for lunch once a week, or commuters who hurried home to make a dinner meeting.

The fact is, those options may not be so easy any more... many shops have just one person 'on the floor' during the day prohibiting closing to attend 'some meeting'. Getting out of the city early is just as problematic.

The result is the shrinking of many of these organizations and the changing demographics of those that seem to have survived. Basically most of these organizations are dominated by what we euphemistically call 'seniors'. The organizations are having a difficult time attracting younger folks.

You may not view this as earthshaking, but the primary reason I could give for the demise is simple...'Time'. Everyone seems to be so busy it is difficult to enjoy whatever it is they want. There just isn't 'Time'.

So, we now see many of the same (older) faces participating in whatever the event or organization. Maybe if the work load was spread out a little more we could all have time... and feel good about helping.

The bottom line is ... do not wait for a formal invitation from your favorite social or civic organization. Introduce yourself and ask how you can help them meet their goals. Maybe HarborFest is a good place to start. There will be many worthwhile organizations describing their intentions and efforts... so, how about simply walking up to one or two of them and asking "How can I help?"

I'll bet you will feel better immediately.
